Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .About the Book, RAGS AND RICHES In this Book 26 of the Make My Day series, Henares chronicles how he started making home movies, Hollywood style, based on his first born son s favorite stories, St. George and the Dragon, and Noah s Ark. He could not find a knight s costume, so he used a cowboy s costume and re-christened the hero, Hopalong St. George. He could not build an Ark, so he used a banca, and called the movie Noah s Act, gets the nursemaid to represent Noah s Family, and a pet dog to represent the Animals, and himself as the rest of the sinful human race who deserved to drown because he would not say his bedtime prayers, nor eat his breakfast properly, nor brush his teeth, and whose dying words were Give me a toothbrush so I can save myself! A 50 feet roll of Kodachrome cost a fabulous P50, and will only run 3 1/2 minutes, so the epic St. George and the Dragon filmed to run 2:35 minutes; and the epic Noah s Act was compressed to a mini-epic 2:12 minutes! The unused film footage was incorporated into Henares third film, based on his own favorite story, The Tell-Tale Heart, which run for 3:32 minutes, and which was such a horror story, it caused nightmares for the rest of the children generations hence. The rest of the Shadows on the Wall featured a surfeit of good Filipino movies that came much later, many of them starring Larry Henares favorite ex-future daughter-in-law Vilma Santos. This included the OTHER Golden Age of Filipino Cinema during Martial Law (since it was the only way to protest against the...
