BPS Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Like so many of us, Margret Kopala lost a significant portion of her life savings in the stock market crash of 2008. Unlike us, however, she went on a long and intense financial odyssey to find out what caused the losses and what she could do to protect herself in the future. Armed with her skills as a journalist and public policy analyst, fueled by equal measures of fear and determination, and mentored by successful investment strategist and financial broadcaster John Budden, Kopala researched and wrote this magisterial analysis of how Russian economist Nikolai Kondratieff's long-wave theory is playing out in what many today describe as a financial Winter. Kopala explores the global, national, and personal effects of: overconsumption; underproduction; energy and innovation; the printing of money to save the economy; competitive devaluations; deflation, reflation, and inflation; and war (the ultimate economic crisis). She documents those technologies that seeded previous New Economy Spring seasons -- from the era of canals to those of railroads, automobiles, and infotech --...
