The answer which he received was, that no pay had ever been issued under the direction of the war-office to officers of the navy serving with the army on shore. lie now ejtered upon a new line of service. The Austrian and Sardinian armies, under General de Vins, required a British squadron to co-operate with them in driving the French from the Riviera di Genoa; and as Nelson had been so much in the habit of soldiering, it was immediately fixed that the brigadier should go. He sailed from St. Fiorenzo on this destination; but fell in, off Cape del Mele, with the enemy s fleet, who immediately gave his...
