Greek philosopher and mathematician Pythagoras, 580 to 500 B. C. E. , believed certain numbers held souls and incredible magical power and one of those numbers happens to be 13. Were the miracles performed by a mysterious Marian apparition at Fatima, Portugal, beginning on May 13, 1917 on each 13th day of the month until October 13, 1917, about a future solar event Lewis has discovered that on October 13, 1917, the sun day danced in the sky and fell toward earth to the horror of 70, 000 thousand people in Fatima, but not one witness described a golden sun. In fact, the sun aberrations were described as a huge stainless steel disc with a sharp edge. Lewis theorizes the sun was a huge spacecraft and the Lady was an extraterrestrial who imparted a dire warning to humanity. The three secrets given to the three Fatima children by the Lady should have been released to the world by Vatican in 1960, but they werent. Why Did the message contain a catastrophic...
