Condition: New. Oxford University Press, 2014. 384p. Paperback. No religion has more consistently defined itself against a religious other than the Latter-day Saints. Now Mormon intellectuals are asking what a Great Apostasy from early Christianity means in light of current historical scholarship and growing Mormon respect for other religions. This is one of the most significant books on Mormon thought in this generation and relevant to all religions who define themselves against a religious other. Richard Bushman, author of Joseph Smith: Rough Stone Rolling (Publisher's information). Condition: New Print on Demand. Printed on Demand.
