Excerpt: . see the form of the god Ea himself therein. Let not the eye of any man whatsoever look upon it, with the exception of thine own self, or thy father, or thy son, and guard this with great care. Then shall the spirit be perfect in the heart of Ea, and it shall give unto him power with the company of the gods; and the gods shall look upon him as a divine being like unto themselves; and mankind and the dead shall fall down upon their faces, and he shall be seen in the underworld in the form of the radiance of Ea. 2. This chapter shall be recited over a hawk THE SOUL COMING TO THE BODY. 113 standing and having the white crown upon his head, and over figures of the gods Tem, Shu, Tefnut, Seb, Nut, Osiris, Isis, Suti,...
