Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Can you solve all the mazes to crack the code and discover the secret message? In Japanese the word meiro means maze, and the word kodo means code. Each volume of MeiroKodo contains 26 mazes. Each of these mazes features one letter of the alphabet along with a few different symbols throughout the maze. The first objective is to figure out which one of the symbols correlates to the letter in each maze. In MeiroKodo, there is ALWAYS and ONLY just one possible symbol that relates to each letter in each maze, and each maze is created in such a way that it is impossible for you to solve the letter for an incorrect symbol. Stay within the lines to solve each maze and decipher the letters one by one. There is a code key sheet included where you will match the symbols to the letters as you solve each maze. Once you have completed the mazes, you will be able to use the code key sheet to solve for the secret message at the end. The mazes are cheat-proof in that you cannot start from the end and work your way back to the beginning - which is the letter you are trying to solve for. This is because you simply don't know which symbol correlates to the letter to begin with. So whether you try and start working backwards from the symbols, or from the starting point of the letter, either way you will be challenged just as much. And if the messages in each volume were simply scrambled letters of our alphabet, then the messages would be nothing more than just a simple cyrptogram. But by using symbols...
