Every action we take has an impact, and that we can change our future by making an effort. We will be able to value what we have, give away what we don t need, and never forget those who once helped us for everything can change from one day to another, and it may be we who need the help we did not offer. We will search deep inside, asking for what we really want to become, and what we really need in order to be happier. It will tell us to value the teaching of animals, thanking them for being part of our lives, and learning from the feelings only they can awaken within us. It will bring us closer to a more realistic level of consciousness, trying to be...
