

When Opposites Meet

By Garg Sachin

Harlequin, 2017. Soft cover. Condition: New. 216pp. What happens when opposites meet? When two completely different people find themselves drawn to each other, can they really find happiness together? Can wheelchair-bound Ritwika find a chord that connects her to national-level athlete Chetan? Will Aditi's irrepressible cheerfulness restart Jayant's life, put on indefinite pause since his parents' death? Does Indu, happily divorced, rediscover her faith in love with the reclusive Lokesh? When Opposites Meet is the story of three unlikely couples and the differences between them. It's the story of love, and the possibility of finding it in the most unlikely of places.

Reviews

This ebook is very gripping and exciting. It is one of the most amazing books we have studied. It has been printed in a remarkably easy way and it is only after I finished reading this book through which I really transformed me, affected the way I think.
